Hang this on your door to remember key rights and details if ICE enters your home!

What can I do if ICE officers are at my door? Do I have to let ICE into my home?

You do not have to let ICE in unless they have a warrant signed by a judge giving them authorization to enter to arrest someone at your address. Ask them to slip the warrant under the door, before you open it. ICE will most likely try to enter your home without a warrant and needs consent from an adult to enter. Opening the door does not mean that you consent.

“Please slip the warrant under the door”

“I do not want to answer any questions”

If ICE agents are inside my home, can I ask them to leave?

DO NOT LIE. DO NOT SHOW FALSE DOCUMENTS. DO NOT RUN OR PHYSICALLY RESIST ARREST.

Say, “I do not want to answer any questions,” and ask agents to leave their contact information.

If they enter without consent, say “I do not consent to this. Please leave the house.”

“I do not consent to this. Please leave the house.”

Can ICE walk through all rooms and search the home for specific people or items?

ICE is not supposed to search your home or belongings without your consent if they do not have a judicial warrant. If they are inside and start to search, say “I do not consent to this search. Please leave the house.”

Keep saying this, especially if they search for, take or try to photograph documents. They may not listen but it is important for you to exercise this right and tell a lawyer later. It may help you or a loved one in the future.

Do not give ICE passport or consular documents unless they have a search warrant signed by a judge listing those items. ICE agents often ask people to gather up their travel documents during an arrest. They are only doing this to help the government try to deport you. Say, “I don’t want to bring my documents” or “I don’t want to give anything over.” DO NOT give them false or invalid documentation (e.g. fake Social Security card or expired immigration visa).

“I do not consent to this search. Please leave the house.”

“I don’t want to bring my documents”

“I don’t want to give anything over.”

What should I remember if ICE agents are inside my home?

Tell them right away if: There are children or the elderly present. *You are ill, on medication, nursing or pregnant. *You are the primary caretaker for a loved one and need to arrange care.

What information is important to remember about ICE in your home?

It is important for you or a loved one to observe how ICE agents acted at your home and to tell a lawyer. It may make a difference in the immigration case!

Please use the section on the back to take important notes after ICE leaves.

What can I do if my loved one was arrested by ICE?

If your loved one has been arrested by ICE, you can initiate the emergency plan. To learn more details on your rights with ICE visit kitsapiac.org or call 360 616-2722.

To locate your loved one: look online at locator.ice.gov or you can call the Northwest Detention Center at (253) 779-6000

To find out your loved one's court date: call the Immigration Court at 800-898-7180. You will need their Alien number ("case number" or "A#"), which is an 8- or 9-digit number that appears on all immigration documents. If they did not have an A# before the arrest, they will be assigned one.

In some cases, your loved one may not be eligible to see an immigration judge (for example, if they returned without permission from Immigration after being previously deported).

Document what ICE agents did during their arrest below. Your loved one's lawyer may be able to use this information to support the immigration case.
